

The Soul of Money Week 4

Change the Dream;
Stand Up for What You Believe

1. I take a stand that expresses the dreams of my soul.
2. My authentic stand attracts every resource needed to fulfill it.
3. I use my money in ways that align with my values and highest ideals.

2018 Fall Program Prayer

Grounded in the Truth that God is my source, I awaken to a new relationship with money. I affirm that money does not define who I am or what I am worth.

I open my eyes to an abundant world, appreciating all that I already have. In partnership with my soul, I use money as a conduit to express my heartfelt dreams and deepest beliefs.

True value lies in honoring my commitments and making a difference for good in the world. I experience prosperity, joy, and transformation as I use money as an instrument of my soul. And so it is, amen.
