

Creative Living Beyond Fear - Week 4

It's Never Too Late

'Persistence'

1. I start living my creative life whenever I decide to start.
2. Frustration and progress work hand in hand.
3. Creative living may not always be easy, but it is always possible.

2016 Fall Program Prayer

I am a divine creation of God and I am here to live a creative life. I am strong and courageous, open to Spirit's inspiration in all its many forms. I give myself permission to be my authentic self, bringing forth the very best of who I am.

I release all resistance, fears, and concerns for what others may think, and instead; I trust in the benevolent nature of the Universe. I listen to my soul, I embrace my uniqueness, and I show up each day in eager anticipation of all that wants to express through me.

I am grateful to learn more about myself as I step into creative living. It is so, amen.
