

The Power of You
Week 6
Self-Command

1. There is no greater authority than the divine wisdom in my soul.
2. I make my own choices, set my own values, and choose the direction for my life.
3. I am free to be myself today, contradict myself tomorrow, and be loved just the same.

2019 Fall Program Prayer

There is only one Presence and Power in my life. It awakens my soul each day to the divine purpose I have come to express.

I am empowered by this divine energy to accept myself and every experience that comes my way. I use the power of my mind to focus on creating a life filled with happiness and joy.

I know that my soul is calling me to believe in all that is possible for me. This spark of conscious living ignites in me and I take command of my life.

*I turn within, partner with God, and step boldly into the life I was meant to live and all that I have come here to be.
And so it is, amen.*
